L: Come, let us worship God our Father, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing that comes from heaven:

P: who knew us and chose us before the world began; who loves us so much that he calls us his own children;

L: who has brought us from darkness into light and filled us with his glorious power; who has prepared an inheritance for us that will never spoil or fade;

P: who encourages and strengthens us in every good deed and word; who comforts us in our troubles so that we can comfort others.

L: This is our God, the ultimate source of all good things, and the One for whom we live.

ALL: Come, let us worship God, our Father, together!

May the Peace which passes all understanding, which has its source within the very nature of Father, Son and Spirit be with us as we meet, to still our souls and join our hearts as one. May the gentle whisper of the God of peace speak to us through our worship, the reading and understanding of scripture, and be the message of our lives as we leave this place. Amen

Jack Scradler

FCBC Choir | Director: Wendy Quan | Accompanist: Joyce Moy

I want Jesus to walk with me
All along my pilgrim journey
I want Jesus to walk with me

In my trials Lord, please walk with me.
When my whole life becomes a burden
I want Jesus to walk with me.

In my sorrows Lord, come walk with me.
When my poor heart is almost breaking
I want Jesus to walk with me.

Prayer of God's People (We invite your prayer concerns and celebrations.)

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

MISSION STORIES

You are here

“I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink...”

Matthew 25:35

“You are here” with the people of Cambodia

Think of all of the ways that you have used water so far today. Did you take a shower this morning? Did you flush your toilet? Wash your hands? When you made breakfast, did you use water? How about when you cleaned up after the meal?

*Som Bee and her granddaughter now have access to clean water for cooking, drinking and gardening.

Now imagine walking each morning to gather water for your family, knowing the water you were collecting was unclean and could make the members of your family sick.

Then for several months a year, you wouldn't have access to water because it was the dry season and your water source had dried up. How would you get by? What parts of your daily routine would you have to abandon? How would you provide water for your family?

Unfortunately, this is a reality for many people around the world.

In a rural community in Cambodia, the only water available was from a shallow, hand-dug well. Each day during the rainy season, a grandmother named Som Bee would walk to the well to collect the water for her family. But the water from the well was unclean, sometimes leading to health problems, including diarrhea.

Thanks to your support, the community was able to address the unclean water problem by installing a ring well. The members of the community also received training on how to filter the water, keeping it clean for daily use.

Because of your support, the members of the community now have access to clean water year round, and they are sick less often.

Because of your support, Som uses the clean water for her garden to help her grow tomatoes, pumpkins, spinach, gourds, cucumbers and mushrooms. Of course, her family eats the vegetables, so they now have a healthier diet!

Som's garden is so bountiful, she is able to sell her vegetables in her local community, earning money to support her family and buy other items that her family needs.

Your support has reached 16 villages in central Cambodia with clean, safe water. You were here with Som and her neighbors as they gathered to build their well with your support. Now, you are with Som each time she leaves her home and only walks a matter of yards to the well. You are here when she waters her gardens and prepares nutritious meals. You are here as her granddaughter grows healthy and strong.

You are here. And the future is bright.
